DESTITUTION OF THE SOUTHERN CLERGY.-The terrible destitution of the people of the Southern States is telling with most disastrous effect upon the clergy, many hundreds of whom have been forced by want, either to leave the South or engage in secular pursuits. We have before us ample and melancholy evidences of this lamentable state of affairs. A Southern bishop mentions a district where, although the resident clergyman is keeping a freedmen's school and working a small farm with his own hands, he is forced to feed his family on bread alone. The freedmen's bureau does not seem to give soup to impoverished preachers. Another bishop writes that in his State more than a dozen ministers of one religious denomination alone "have been obliged to escape from starvation by seeking other service."-Accounts of equal destitution reach us from all the cotton States, and it is very evident that more than half of the people of the South will shortly be denied the advantage of religious instruction.—Rich. Enquirer.

There are people in New York who pay two hundred dollars per week for board, nearly double what they would pay in a first-class hotel. For this sum they have a suit of rooms, a private table, are catered for by a French cook, with accommodations for two servants— in all, four persons. The wages to servants, the "extras," the carriage hire, the tailor's, milliner's, and wine merchant's bills, undoubtedly amount to a hundred dollars more, bringing expenditure up to twenty thousand dollars per year. A heavy sum for just keeping body and the modern remnant of a soul together for
